Subject: Microsoft Settlement

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing in opposition to the proposed settlement in the Microsoft antitrust trial. I feel that any settlement in this case needs to do more to curtail Microsoft from continuing its illegal practices. If justice is to be served, a new settlement needs to be drafted which is less favorable toward Microsoft.

The vast majority of the provisions within the settlement only formalize the status quo. Of the remaining provisions, none will effectively prohibit Microsoft from abusing its current monopoly position in the operating system market. This is especially important in view of the seriousness of Microsoft's past transgressions.

The current settlement must be thrown out and a new one must be drafted if the court is truly to have served its purpose in this case.

Sincerely,

Joseph Naccarato
